Aggressive Advocates. Committed To Success

In today's technologically driven economy, intellectual property (IP) is paramount and content is king, particularly for companies that secure and distribute it. Hagan Noll & Boyle handles commercial litigation in complex cases involving IP. The firm has yielded impressive results in antipiracy cases involving the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. Additionally, HNB litigates to protect copyrights, pursue trade secret theft and defend trademarks. HNB's practice areas also include the equally fast-moving field of employment law; the firm represents companies and executives in all phases of litigation and arbitration.

Staying on top of swiftly evolving legislation takes diligence. Preparation, however, opens the door for innovation that leads to effective results. HNB is pleased that its three partners have again been named to Rising Stars.
